EPILEPSY NEW ZEALAND
Kia titiro ki te tangata | See the person

Women and Epilepsy

Whether you are a person living with epilepsy, care for someone who does, or are an interested community member, we hope that you find this information useful.

Epilepsy is a complicated condition, and does not affect everyone in the same way. Women can sometimes have unique seizure treatment and management needs due to hormones, contraception and pregnancy. This page provides a range of information about epilepsy and women.

0800 37 45 37
national@epilepsy.org.nz
www.epilepsy.org.nz

© 2026 Epilepsy NZ