LET'S TALK PURPLE DAY

Let's raise funds and get people talking about epilepsy!

Purple Day is on March 26 every year. It is celebrated internationally for raising epilepsy awareness. On Purple Day people come together to raise awareness and fundraise for support services for whanau living with epilepsy.

There are so many ways your school can participate in Purple Day. This pack provides some ideas to get your planning underway and make your fundraising activity a great success.

If 26 March doesn't fall on a day of the week that suits you - choose any date as close as possible to 26 March!

Over the next few pages we share our very best fundraising ideas. On the last page is a checklist to help you organize Purple day. Once you have decided what you are going to do - email the registration form and we will send you some materials to go purple!

SHOUT PURPLE DAY

Shout about your Purple Day fundraiser

Raise Awareness - let your community know about your fundraising day! The more people who know about your Purple Day fundraiser, the more support you will receive.

Sharing event details and fundraising pages on social media is a great place to start. Don't forget to use social media groups, family facebook pages, company newsletters, notice boards and flyers to ask for support.

Get people talking about epilepsy

Purple Day is about raising funds for our epilepsy support services and raising awareness of epilepsy. Sharing and talking about epilepsy may help increase understanding and encourage diversity and inclusion.

Together we can get people talking about epilepsy.
